LEGEND OF FEBRUARY

Why February has twenty-eight days is explained in the legends of the past. A French publication devotes one col umn to this curious subject. One is of an old woman, who, tending her flock, ridiculed the month because it had dealt so leniently with her and her sheep. Then February felt insulted, sleeping cars crews with the Japanese and made leap year, and borrowed a employes so far as they are able to cold day from March, and froze her do it. # BROSSIA--REITZ WEDDING

On Tuesday afternoon Rev. C. S. Ide of the Zoar Lutheran church united in marriage Miss Sadie Brossia and William Reitz at the home of the bride's parents, Wm. F. Brossia and wife, in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties.

The attendants were Miss Tillie, Schalter as bridesmaid and Ray Mandell as best man.

After the marriage ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served. Many beautiful and useful gifts were presented the bride and groom.

In the evening a dance was given to about 60 of their friends.

They left for a wedding trip to Cleyeland and on their return will commence housekeeping on a farm near Moline.

The best wishes for a life of happiness and success from a host of friends is extended to them.
